

Caregivers Needed for Advisory Group

Apply by
Feb. 27, 2026

The DSHS Direct Care Workforce Collaborative is adding more community members in 2026. This volunteer advisory group is made up of caregivers who work in a variety of settings. They provide input on programs and policies focused on recruiting, supporting and retaining caregivers across Washington state.

Before deciding to apply, please review important details on the webpage about community compensation and a public reporting disclosure.

We're Seeking Caregivers:

With long-term experience working in group settings based in rural areas. This could be assisted living, adult family homes, skilled nursing facilities or enhanced services facilities.

OR

Who are unpaid providing in-home care to a family member.

Key Things to Know:

In 2026, DCWC members will meet six times from 2–4 p.m. Meetings will be held on Feb. 19, Apr. 16, Jun. 18, Aug. 20, Oct. 15, and Dec. 17.

All meetings are virtual using Zoom. There is also a call-in option.

Members are compensated for their time (subject to available budget).
